

Applicant Checklist for Planned Unit Developments

PD-1/5

1. A planned unit development (PUD) application package is available from the Community Planning and Development Department. The application shall be completed in full with the appropriate fee to this office. The office hours are 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., Monday through Friday
2. The application package consists of one (1) applicant checklist, one (1) application form, and one (1) review guidelines form.
3. A PUD is an area of land controlled by a landowner(s) to be developed as a unified project and single entity for a group of structures and a number of dwelling units primarily for residential use, the plan for which does not correspond in lot size, bulk, type of dwelling, density, lot coverage, or required open space to the regulations in any one (1) residential district established by other chapters of the Zoning Ordinance.
4. All PUD plans shall contain the information specified in Chapter IXA, Planned Unit Development (PUD) Requirements of the Zoning Ordinance.
5. The PUD outline development plan and application shall be submitted to the Community Planning and Development Department. The application shall be accompanied by a fee.
6. It is your responsibility to ensure that the PUD plan is complete. An incomplete PUD plan may take additional time to review.
7. The PUD plan will be forwarded to the Planning Commission for review and approval.
8. Planning Commission meetings are held the first Thursday of every month, beginning in the City Commission Chambers at 7:00 p.m.
9. As a general rule, the application must be received by the Community Planning and Development Department at least four (4) weeks prior to the Planning Commission meeting.
10. You are expected to attend the Planning Commission and City Commission meetings.
11. The Planning Commission, upon approving the final development plan, will forward the project to the City Commission.
12. Following a public hearing, the City Commission shall have the authority to grant the Planned Unit Development approval.
13. It is your responsibility to review the appropriate sections of the Zoning Ordinance, including Chapter IXA, which outlines the review process.

If you have any questions on completing this application, please call the Community Planning and Development Department at (269) 337-8044.

Review Guidelines for Planned Unit Developments

PD-3/5

- A. The Planning Commission and City Commission shall consider the proposed Planned Unit Development Plan from the point of view of:
1. The standards and purposes of the regulations governing the Planned Unit Development Zone;
 2. A maximum of coordination between the proposed development and the surrounding uses;
 3. The conservation of woodland;
 4. The protection of water courses from erosion, siltation, and pollution;
 5. Maximum of safety, convenience, and amenity for the residents of the development.
- B. To these ends, the Planning Commission and the City Commission shall consider:
1. The location of buildings, parking areas, and other features with respect to the topography of the area and existing features such as streams and large trees;
 2. The efficiency, adequacy, and safety of the proposed layout of internal streets and driveways;
 3. The adequacy and location of green space provided;
 4. The adequacy, location, and screening of parking areas;
 5. If the planned unit development is consistent with the Comprehensive Plan;
 6. If the planning unit development can be planned and developed to harmonize with any existing or proposed development in the area surrounding the project site; and
 7. Such other matters as the Planning Commission and City Commission may find to have a material bearing upon the stated standards and objectives of the Planned Unit Development zone regulations.
